

Tree-free CG

With this issue, Canadian Geographic is also available in digital format. The digital edition is a carbon copy of the print edition, with full text and photography and additional features, including a hyperlinked table of contents, a search function and a tool for highlighting text and making notes.

CG is one of a handful of Canadian publications to go treeless using the Zinio publishing platform. For more information, see page 91 or visit www.canadian-geographic.ca/digital.
